A PROGRAM OF (914) CARES

FASHION SHOW GALA 3.8.20

4 PM-6:30 PM
WILLOW RIDGE COUNTRY CLUB
123 NORTH ST. HARRISON, NY

A Note From Our Founder

Kids' Kloset started on my doorstep over 11 years ago, with a request to help a young mom who couldn't afford a stroller. Since then, it has grown in ways that have far exceeded my expectations. Since 2011, with the support of the community, we have provided almost 20,000 "Bags of Love" to Westchester County youth living in need. I am so proud of all that we have accomplished and all of the children we have helped.

Kids' Kloset, at its core, is a community effort. I feel so fortunate to be a part of a community that cares deeply for its youth and am proud to be the first call for many social workers, clergy, fire departments, etc. when there is a child in need of clothing. I would personally like to thank our volunteers who sort thousands of pounds of donated items, those who provide us with items to sort and/or funds to purchase any missing items we might need, and our community partners for all that they do.

Moving forward, we hope to help many, many more children in our community. Thank you for your continued support.

Kids' KLOset Honoree: Mary Rosewater

Originally from Milford, Connecticut, where she was, apparently unironically, elected "best citizen" by her 8th grade peers, Mary earned a B.A. from the University of Michigan in 1993 and a J.D. from Fordham University School of Law in 1996. She went on to clerk for Senior United States District Judge Warren W. Eginton and thereafter worked as a litigation associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP and Schulte Roth & Zabel LLP.

After eight years of practicing law, two of which were spent juggling being a new mom and daily commutes to the city, Mary became a full-time "stay at home mom" for about five minutes. After those confusing five minutes, Mary enrolled in a part-time graduate program at Purchase College, where she earned an M.A. in art history in 2013. At the same time, Mary consulted for a nonprofit art law foundation.

Mary ultimately found it necessary to take a step back from her professional life once again in order to focus on more pressing issues at home. It was around that time, in 2016, that she started volunteering at Kids' KLOset. An extreme neatnik and granddaughter of a cleaning woman who took in laundry to support her eleven (not a typo) children, Mary found that sorting and folding clothes fell squarely within her bailiwick. More importantly, however, Mary felt personally propelled by the urgency of Kids' KLOset's mission. After all, her mother had received much needed donated clothing, shoes, medical care, and camperships. To Mary, each recipient of a "Bag of Love" is just like her own (now late) mother, with all of the same hopes, dreams, and potential as any child.

Mary accepted a position on the Board of Directors of (914) Cares when it became the vibrant new home to Kids' KLOset in 2018. She is also a Trustee of Scarsdale Synagogue, a member of Impact 100, and with her husband, supports programs at the University of Michigan, including the DyslexiaHelp web site and a "clothing closet" where students in need can access professional attire for interviews and internships.

Mary lives in Scarsdale with her husband, David, and their teenage sons, Jacob and Toby. The Rosewaters share their home with two magnificent Great Pyrenees rescue dogs, a somewhat ill tempered cat, and multiple vacuum cleaners.

The Board of (914) Cares
Thanks Mary Rosewater
and her entire family
for their dedicated support and service

Host: Lindsay Brooke Weiss

Lindsay Brooke Weiss is a stylist whose client list includes models, celebrities, corporations and many of New York's most fashionable women. Prior to dedicating herself exclusively to styling, Lindsay was the Fashion and Accessories Editor at several top magazines, including Hamptons and Gotham magazine. Lindsay has developed an innovative, multi-step styling system that shifts the focus away from unnecessary shopping and instead on reinventing her clients' pre-existing wardrobe. Only after Lindsay works with her clients to "edit" their closets, do they hit the town (or internet!) for some shop-therapy. She styles clients virtually as well (not limited to NYC). Lindsay is also the founder of COCOINCASHMERE, a lifestyle blog with a focus on fashion.

My deepest thanks go out to Kids' KLOset for allowing me the opportunity to participate in this noble cause. As a stylist, I often think of clothing in terms of fashion, and it is easy to forget that to many people living in our own community it is something much more important: clothing.

With fondness and appreciation,

How Can You Help?

Volunteer Your Time

Help us sort through clothes and/or pack Bags of Love for kids in need!

Donate

Buy something new the next time you are shopping for your own kids or check out our wish list on-line, any clothing items you can provide would be appreciated!

Host A Drive

Have your friends and neighbors drop off any clothes they want to donate or host a drive through your school, office or house of worship and drop them off at Kids' KLOset!

Pick Me Up Day

Tell friends to leave donations in front of their home and bring them to Kids' KLOset!

Clean Your Closets

Go through your closets and give us any clothes your family doesn't use anymore. Any size!

Do Something Fun With Your Co-Workers

Have your co-workers join you at Kids' KLOset to pack some Bags of Love and help kids in need!

The refugee family you helped last month is so appreciative. Kids' Kloset has been a life saver for them.

-Social Worker

The families I serve are so grateful for everything Kids' Kloset provides for their children. Kids' Kloset really makes a difference.

-Social Worker

Your work is important, appreciated and needed. Thanks again for this donation as well as all of the others we have received!

-Social Worker

For my family, and other families throughout Westchester, the work that KK does is something that is heaven sent.
